Of the Arrendale Library
of Piedmont College

Dear Community Member:

You are cordially invited to become a member of the Friends of Arrendale Library, which supports Arrendale Library in the pursuit of its mission. Membership in the Friends of Arrendale Library is open to everyone who share an interest in Arrendale Library and would like to support its programs and services by offering their time, talents and contributions.

Your annual membership in Friends of Arrendale Library entitles you to the following: 1) You may borrow books from the circulating collection, up to 5 at a time, for 14 days; 2) You may renew your books three times; 3) You will receive an e-mail notice 3 days before a book becomes overdue; 4) After a book becomes overdue, you will have a grace period of 5 days, but then fines accrue at 10¢ per day; 5) You may have access to our research resources while visiting the Library.

Finally, through your annual membership, you can share in the satisfaction of supporting worthwhile projects and programs designed to enrich the lives of the students of Piedmont College and citizens of the local community.
